RECALLING CONFERENCE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL No. 1 FROM THE SENATE

Mr. SCHWARTZ offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, April 10, 1933.

Whereas, The Report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1 was adopted by the House of Representatives on the third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three; and

Whereas, At the time of such adoption, printed copies of said conference report, being Printer's No. 473, had been placed upon the desks of the Members of the House of Representatives, upon which printed copies the words "and football" had been inadvertently omitted through a printer's error, in line 10 on page 4, after the word "baseball"; and

Whereas, There is doubt that the correct report of the Committee of Conference was thereby adopted; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1 be recalled from the Senate for the purpose of reconsideration by, and resubmission to, the House of Representatives, as correctly printed.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION NO. 56

Mr. MALINA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 56, Printer's No. 293.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 23, 1933.

Whereas, A number of Building and Loan Associations are now under the control of the Banking Department of the State for liquidation and

Whereas, They have been for a long period of time in the said Department without being liquidated and stockholders in the said Associations are therefore at great loss and

Whereas, Practices have been indulged in by the Department of Banking in the selection of Attorneys and receivers for the said Associations who have been charging large fees for their services and

Whereas, The maintenance, management and control of the said Associations are costing the stockholders in the said associations unnecessarily large sums of money and

Whereas, It is believed that the said Associations have been placed under the control of certain individuals for political reasons and

Whereas, A large number of the Associations are still dominated and controlled even though under the control of the Banking Department by former Directors of the Associations who have wrecked and dissipated their assets and

Whereas, It would seem for the good and protection of the assets of the Association to the advantage of the stockholders that the same be investigated, Now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a committee of seven, four of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House and three by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate for the purpose of investigating the conditions generally as to the management and liquidation of the Building and Loan Associations in the hands of the Banking Department for liquidation for the purpose of ascertaining the cause of the long delay in liquidation; the reasons why officers formerly in control of the Associations are still retained by the Banking Department; why large sums of money are expended for attorneys fees; why a large amount of money is expended unnecessarily for maintenance and operation instead of liquidation; why political influences are allowed by the Department to dominate and control the present management and liquidation of the Associations; why said Associations have not been liquidated by the Department and be it further

Resolved, That this Committee be authorized and empowered to compel the attendance of all witnesses necessary to the proper investigation and the production of all records both of the Banking Department, Building and Loan Associations and all other records and report to the next Legislature the result of its findings together with any suggested Legislation to be proposed for enactment of laws to correct and remedy the same.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The resolution was not adopted.

Mr. MALINA. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman that his request comes too late, the Chair having already announced that the noes have it.

RESOLUTION NO. 57

Mr. MALINA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 57, Printer's No. 294.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 23, 1933.

Whereas, A large number of banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies have been placed under the control of the Department of Banking of the State for liquidation; and

Whereas, Some of the said banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies have been in the hands of the Department of Banking for liquidation for over a period of two years with no final or complete liquidation occurring; and

Whereas, Very small percentage have been paid to the depositors of the said banks, banking institution and Trust Companies in satisfaction of their deposits; and

Whereas, A great deal of costs have been entailed in the payment of interest on mortgages, maintenance of offices, taxes, on property, custodian costs, attorney fees and a list of other costs which eventually will be borne by the depositors and deducted from their accounts; and

Whereas, There seems inadequate legislation remedies to overcome delays in liquidation; and

Whereas, It would seem that a more definite, comprehensive and speedy liquidation for the benefit of saving the accounts of depositors in said banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies employed and should be legislative for; and

Whereas, Effectiveness and thoroughness of banking inspectors of the Department of banking seem to be inadequate and lacking in thoroughness in the investigation of the accounts of banks prior to liquidation; and

Whereas, Large amounts of moneys have been withdrawn from banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies a few day prior to them being taken over by the Banking Department; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a Committee of seven four of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House and three by the President pro tempore of the Senate for the purpose of investigating the conditions generally as to the banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies in process of liquidation under the control of the Banking Department, for the purpose of ascertaining the necessity of postponing final liquidation for such a long period; as to why such small amounts of percentages are paid to depositors; as to the necessity of the large amount of costs paid for maintenance of offices, interest on mortgages, taxes on property, custodian costs and large and execessive attorney fees reducing amounts to be paid depositors; the adequacy of the bank examiners and the thoroughness of their examinations of banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies; and as to why large sums of money were permitted to be withdrawn from banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies within a few days prior to them being taken over by the Banking Department; and be it further

Resolved, That this Committee be authorized and empowered to compel the attendance of all witnesses necessary to the proper investigation and the production of all records both of the Banking Department and of the banks, banking institutions and Trust Companies in liquidation and report to the next Legislature the result of its findings together with the suggested Legislation to be proposed for enactment of law to correct and remedy the same.

PLEDGING NON-ADJOURNMENT UNTIL IMPORTANT LEGISLATION HAS BEEN ACTED UPON

Mr. SOWERS offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, April 10, 1933.

Whereas, The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has been laboring most diligently and various important pieces of legislation are almost completed and ready for submission to both Houses for final passage; and

Whereas, It would be most unfortunate and detrimental to the general welfare of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to attempt to adjourn the General Assembly before these important pieces of legislation have been passed upon by both Houses and approved or disapproved by the Governor; and

Whereas, The General Assembly cognizant of its responsibility to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania desires and wishes to avoid a situation where highly important and material legislation completed, or near completion, would fail final passage because of premature adjournment, Therefore be it,

Resolved by the House of Representatives that it hereby pledges itself that it will not entertain or pass any resolution to adjourn Sine Die until both houses of the General Assembly have finally acted upon, with or without the Governor's approval, of legislation covering the following subject matters:

1. Just and equitable legislation for immediate unemployment relief.

2. Reduction in the cost of Government and just and proper economy in the Executive Branch thereof.

3. Just and proper appropriations to hospitals for the care of the sick and injured and to charities for the care of the unfortunate needy.

4. Amendments to the Constitution for Old Age Pensions and Mothers Assistance.

5. Proper legislation for the raising of revenue from beer and the regulation thereof, and for liquor control when the 18th Amendment has been repealed.

6. Legislation for a Convention to pass upon the repeal of the 18th Amendment.

MEMORALIZING CONGRESS TO AUTHORIZE IMPROVEMENT OF BEAVER AND MAHONING RIVERS

Mr. McELWEE offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, April 10, 1933.

Resolved: (If the Senate concur) That, Whereas, the Public Works Program of the President of the United States for the relief of the unemployed is restricted to public works that are essential to the people of the community, and

Whereas, The Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House of Representatives of the United States and the Army Engincers of the United States have under consideration a project for improving the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers from the junction of the Beaver River with the Ohio River at the Borough of Rochester, northward in Pennsylvania, by making these rivers navigable to barge traffic, and

Whereas, The improvement of the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers would be one of the most useful and outstanding public works that the government could find in any community, and

Whereas, This improvement would make available large quantities of raw material and render more secure the continuation of the industries along said rivers, in which hundreds of thousands of people depend for employment and support, and

Whereas, The improvement of these rivers would furnish substantial employment to thousands of persons residing in the State of Pennsylvania, which are now unemployed.

Therefore, Be it resolved that the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorialize and request the Congress of the United States to authorize the immediate improvement of the Beaver and Mahoning Rivers, both for the unemployment relief which would thereby be furnished, and for the permanent continuation of the industries located in Western Pennsylvania, which are dependent upon these rivers being navigable.

Be it further resolved that copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Clerk of the Senate to the President of the United States, to both United States Senators and each member of Congress from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be re-referred to the Committee on Legislative Apportionment for the purpose of amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HEFFERON. Mr. Speaker and members of this House, this bill pertains to my own district. I don't want to have it recommitted. Three years ago two boroughs in my district were annexed to the city of Wilkes-Barre, and they are still in my Legislative District. This bill provides that these districts shall be transferred into the Seventh Legislative District, and a part of the Sixth Legislative District, which I take care of now, should be annexed to mine, and that is all that the bill provides. I ask the members of the House not to recommit this bill.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hefferon.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hefferon, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEFFERON. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JONES. Does the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hefferon, know there is a general apportionment bill in now which would give Luzerne County nine representatives?

Mr. HEFFERON. Mr. Speaker, I am informed that that bill will go back to committee.

Mr. JONES. Does the gentleman know that it is to go back to committee?

Mr. HEFFERON. Mr. Speaker, that is my information.

Mr. JONES. Does the gentleman know the provisions of this resolution which changes the thing around different in his district?

Mr. HEFFERON. Mr. Speaker, I don't understand the question of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones.

Mr. JONES. Does the gentleman know that the general apportionment bill would change——

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones, that there is a motion before the House to recommit, and the merits of the particular legislation cannot be discussed.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is an apportionment bill which was introduced by Mr. Shortz, and doesn't concern Mr. Hefferon's district on account of having another apportionment bill in that does concern his particular district, and I was talking to him, and he has no objection to its going back to where it should go, in order to get nine districts in our county, and if this goes through, we won't get the extra member. I ask the House to send this bill back so it will be in conformity with the general apportionment bill.

Mr. HEFFERON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill affects my district alone, and I ask the members of the House to vote "no."

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I beg to differ with the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hefferon. This bill does not concern his district alone. It concerns the Seventh Legislative District, which is Mr. Mason's and my district, and we are very much concerned about the bill.

The motion was not agreed to.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Union, Mr. Baker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Union, Mr. Baker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BAKER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Union, Mr. Baker, whether this bill was not reported from the Judiciary General Committee on agreement that it was to be recommitted after second reading?

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was reported from the Committee on Judiciary General with the agreement that I present a motion for it to be recommitted.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill No. 68 on the calendar, which Mr. Baker has moved to recommit, was referred to the Judiciary General Committee. The committee at its first meeting on January seventeenth refered this bill to its sub-committee. This bill has no right on this calendar tonight. The sub-committee in charge of that bill did not report the bill to the committee. Through some means or other the bill appears on your calendar tonight without having been released by the Committee on Judicary General. I would ask you members of the House therefore, to vote to recommit this bill to the Committee on Judicary General, where it rightfully belongs.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that is news to me as far as that statement is concerned. Two years ago I introduced this same bill. In order to get rid of the bill and kill it the same thing happened. At that time the committee did not act upon it. I agreed at that time to present a motion to recommit it. The bill was recommitted and stayed in committee. Now if the committee did not act as a whole on this bill, that is no fault of the sponsor, and since the question has arisen, I kindly ask you to vote to keep this bill on the calendar.

Br. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Union, Mr. Baker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BAKER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Will the sponsor of the bill inform the House whether at the time the committee acted on this bill he did not agree that if this bill were reported to the House, he would see to it that it was recommitted under his motion after the bill passed second reading?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the question asked by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, is irregular and out of order.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The confidences in the committee cannot be betrayed on the floor of the House.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was referred by the Judiciary General Committee to a sub-committee of which I was the chairman, and the sentiment of the Judiciary General Committee was against reporting this bill to the floor of the House, but due to repeated requests on the part of the sponsor, and solely out of courtesy to him and under an agreement with him, the committee was prevailed upon to refer this bill to the House with the distinct understanding between the sponsor——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I renew my former point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the gentleman continues to discuss the deliberations and conclusions and reasons that actuated the committee.

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, that the motion before the House is to recommit, and the gentleman will confine his remarks to the motion.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I am stating that there was an agreement between myself and the sponsor of the bill, and am not attempting to divulge deliberations of the committee. As a result of an agreement entered into by me as chairman of the sub-committee with the sponsor of the bill, this bill was reported to the House with the understanding as between the sponsor and myself that he would move that the bill be re-referred to the committee after second reading. Of course, if this House desires to uphold the desires of the committee then it seems to me, particularly in view of the fact that the sponsor has made this motion, that there should be no question about the recommittal of this bill to the committee, so the motion of the sponsor to recommit his bill ought to prevail.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the sponsor of this bill did his duty and lived up to his agreement. Now I understand he is not insisting on this bill going back to committee, but in fact he is favorable to our taking action to save his bill, and I consequently recommend that instead of sending the bill back to committee to be killed, that we should put it through.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Baker and Mr. Witkin and were as follows:

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was before the House some time ago, and I believe it was on my motion that the bill was recommitted to the Committee on Counties for a hearing. The hearing was held on the bill by the Committee on Counties, and, although I have some misgivings about the advisability of exempting three billion dollars worth of bank deposits of taxes at this time, nevertheless, under the present circumstances I do not propose to oppose the bill. My attitude in this matter is determined by the fact that there may be some possibility of revising the method of collecting the four mills personal property tax. Under the proposed revision the State would obtain about eight million dollars for the biennium for unemployment relief. Under this proposed plan bank deposits would be exempt. It is in view of that fact that I am not going to oppose the bill tonight, because if we can obtain a revision of the present method of collecting the personal property tax, and thus obtain eight million dollars for unemployment relief, it is a worthwhile move, and it is for that reason that I am agreeing to go along with the bill at the present time and under the present circumstances.

The motion was not agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. KING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to call up at this time House Bill No. 1843 (Senate Bill No. 638), Printer's No. 178, on page 75 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. King,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1843 (Senate Bill No. 638), entitled:

An Act providing for the appointment by the court of quarter sessions of the directors of the poor of the Erie County Poor District and abolishing the elected directors; providing for the appointment and compensation of a director of welfare, investigators, assistants, experts and employes, and for the employment and compensation of elected directors whose terms have not expired; and repealing existing laws.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before you is a bill which is commonly known as a ripper bill. Its intention is to take away from the people of Erie County through special legislation the right to elect their directors of the poor and to place that power in the hands of the county commissioners and the judge of the court of common pleas. This bill is very obnoxious to the people of the city and county of Erie. I have on file here resolutions from all the larger and more important civic corporations protesting against the passage of this measure and saying it will take from them the right to determine for themselves who shall act in that capacity. Furthermore, I have agreed with the sponsor of the bill, or rather I requested of him to place an amendment in the bill providing that it be put up to a referendum vote of the citizens of Erie. This proposition was rejected by the sponsors, and in view of that fact I think that the members of the Legislature owe it to the citizens of this Commonwealth, and particularly in this case in the County of Erie, the right to say by referendum ballot how they shall have their elective offices filled. It is taking away from them the right they desire to have, and I ask you to give us consideration insofar as the sponsor would not agree to the referendum proposition, and defeat this bill.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to raise my voice in protest against the passage of this bill, and I wish you would grant me a few moments time, and also agree not to rise to a point of order, for which I will be wonderfully obliged. That point of order business always scares me and throws me out of my stride and makes me forget what I want to say.

This bill is of special interest to me because it refers to Erie County, but it is not of so much interest to the rest of you members because it does not concern your counties. If this bill does pass, as pertaining to Erie County, the taxpayers are deprived of their right to vote on the officials of their county, and it can be expected that the same thing will soon spread through other counties.

As it stands today Pennsylvania has fifty-two counties that are handled by poor directors. Twenty-nine of those counties have three poor directors and twenty-two of them are a combination of poor directors, county commissioners. The law in Erie County has stood for sixty years, with a few amendments, and they have had three poor directors. Nobody ever heard any opposition to that until just the last few years when this emergency arose and the members of the Board of Directors had to spend a lot of money, and some politicians in Erie County thought it would be nice to spend that money, and consequently arranged this change in the law.

I want to say to you that I know when this bill was incubated. I was right there on the spot and they asked me to go along with this bill at that time and I said "no" then, and I say "no" now. If we don't agree to a representative government; if we don't agree to reserving the right to vote for officials that have the expenditure of our money, pass this bill. If you do still adhere to representative government, then vote no.

I cannot for the life of me see how American citizens can stand for this kind of thing. Look at that picture on that wall, we have sat in the shadow of that for three months, and what did those people strive for. Look at this picture on the rear wall. What did they strive for? What did they shed their blood and die for? For representative government. These were the men who coined the words: "Freedom, Liberty, Loyalty, Patriotism." That is what they stood for and that is what we want to stand for. That is the heritage they handed down to you and I, and now you are asked to give it away to hand to politicians your rights as American citizens.

Gentleman, I wish I had the wisdom of a Solomon, the logic of a Plato and the eloquence of a Demosthenes. I would like to combine them all and cast an hypnotic spell over the members of this House long enough to have you vote "no" on this bill.

I don't want to go back home to Erie County and have them know that this kind of a bill passed the Legislature while I am a member of it.

My colleague has told you the exact truth. People of Erie County don't want this bill passed and we asked the sponsor either to withdraw it or put an amendment in it to give the right of referendum to the people of Erie County. If he had done that we would not object to it, but he refused to do it, because they know mighty well that if the people of Erie County had a chance to vote on this bill it would not have a ghost of a show to go through.

Just now, as I told you, they are having an argument up there between the officials and the poor directors themselves. The poor directors office has expanded from one hundred thousand to seven hundred thousand dollars in two years. No wonder they made some mistakes, and anybody who tried to expand that fast would do the same thing. Don't you remember the investigation committee down in Washington after the war, called to investigate case of extravagences. They put Charles W. Dawes on the stand and what did he tell them? He said "of coure, we were extravagant, of course, we were wasteful, but 'Hell and Maria' we were not trying to economize, we wanted to win the war and we won it." Our poor board is not trying to economize now, they are trying to feed and clothe the hungry, and they are trying to do it the best way they can. The people who are trying to pass this bill sit back in their swivel chairs and criticise them. It is a shame that a bill like this ever had to come before this House. I beg of you to vote "no."

Mr. KINNEY. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, the pending measure repeals a special act of Assembly passed in 1839 creating a Board of Poor Directors for Erie County. The passage of the Senate Bill will give Erie County a modern method of caring for the poor and the unemployed.

The ancient law under which Erie County operates allows the poor directors to draw from the county treasury one-half of the total taxes collected. This has actually bankrupted the county.

The Erie County Court under the Ziesenheim Bill will appoint three citizens who will serve without compensation. They will make the necessary appointments subject to the approval of the court. The present poor directors will be retained for the term for which they were elected.

Judge Hirst of our county court prepared the bill now before you in conjunction with Mr. Fertig. The judge has actually supervised all poor and relief work for several years past.

We appeal to you to give us this new law in order that we may properly care for over thirty-six hundred dependent families. The present poor board has not been able to obtain cooperation of other relief agencies.

We feel confident that under the proposed new plan our citizens will be satisfied. I hope that the House tonight will pass the bill.

Mr. KING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, Erie County seems to be divided on this measure. A Democrat and a Republican are for it and a Democrat and a Republican are against it.

This bill only applies to Erie County. It repeals an old law passed in 1839 covering Erie County.

This bill has the support of practically all the county officials, including the judges; it also has the support of the Republican County Committee, the Republican Women's Council, the League of Women Voters, the Erie County Taxpayers Association with eleven thousand members, the Fifth Ward Civic Club of Erie, the Erie Chamber of Commerce, the Erie Retail Merchants Association, the Democratic Women's Council of Erie County, the Manufacturers Association of Erie. It is also supported by the leading Republican paper in Erie County, the Erie Dispatch-Herald, which had a full column editorial on it in Sunday's issue, and it is further supported by the only Democratic paper in Erie County, the Corry Journal, which also had an editorial upon the subject.

I ask the members of the House to give this measure their support.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to call the attention of the members of the House to one section of the bill to offset what might be a misunderstanding with section 2. Section 2: "The appointed directors of the poor of the Erie County Poor District shall have power to appoint and fix the compensation subject to the approval of the court of quarter sessions of a director of welfare and such other investigators, assistants and employes as may be deemed necessary," and when you are told that there are no expenses incident thereto, I think you all have had experience enough in matters of this nature to know that it will be more costly than the present system.

I again ask you to vote "no" on the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, if I understand correctly that in the bill before us the number of employes of the House are changed and reduced to the number which were provided this year by the resolution at the beginning of the session?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, that is correct.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill reduces the number of employes of the House. It was my understanding that it was the desire of the committee and also the desire of the members with whom we consulted that the number of employes be not reduced by act, so that the Legislature could in the future do as we did in the beginning of this session. If you will recall, at the beginning of the session a resolution was introduced for the purpose of this session, reducing the number of employes, but it was felt inadvisable to fix the number of employes in an act by reducing them for a future session.

We return here in 1935, and no one knows what the conditions will be then nor the necessities of the occasion. If it is necessary for economy's sake that we have less employes in the Legislature, at that time they can be reduced by the Legislature by resolution as we have done in this session, but if we change the act now, we will be bound in 1935 by this act, and we may find out that the business of this House will require more employes than the act provides.

Therefore, I would ask you that the bill be voted down.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a bill that affects your own business. It was conceived by the Joint Legislative Committee in order to produce economies.

There has been a hue and cry, I dare say all over the Commonwealth that the Legislature has found the means to effect economies for all departments of the government except the Legislature. This bill was not an answer to that demand, but it was considered to be a fair measure and the committee used as its standard the Bell resolution in the Senate, and I think the Steedle resolution in the House.

The number of employes provided by this bill establishes the number of employes that are presently on the pay roll of the House and the Senate, with one exception and that is, it increases the number of stenographers, because it was felt that four stenographers were not enough, but that six stenographers would be sufficient.

I am not a prophet nor the son of a prophet, but I believe that it is a fair statement to make that when we return two years hence, there will be as much need for economy as there is today.

If the members of the Legislature desire by their negative vote on this measure to repudiate a move to economize, that is their choice. On the other hand it seems to the committee, and it seems to me personally, that this is a step in the right direction. I ask that you vote for the bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia explain the purpose of the bill.

Mr. GARTNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides that State employes be permitted to procure group insurance at their own expense. It just adds them to the other kinds of insurance, such as militia, the State Police, groups of nurses or other employes of the State.

On the question recurring,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1368, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand nine hundred and seven of the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating thereto," by making city liable for payment of compensation to person injured while employed under a contract executed in violation of provisions of this act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hermansen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hermansen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERMANSEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Luzerne, if I am correct in assuming that the title expresses the purpose of this act. I read: "An act relating to cities of the third class, and amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto, by making city liable for payment of compensation for persons injured while employed under a contract executed in violation of provisions of this act." Is that the purpose?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I introduced this bill at the request of one of the most able compensation lawyers in the State. I understand that the court ruled a case against him, because there was no one responsible for the compensation.

This bill provides that if the city or the municipality or the State is connected with the work that is being done, they will be responsible if there is no one else who may be held responsible under the act.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not an able compensation lawyer, but I do have some familiarity with compensation legislation.

The title of this act refers to cities of the third class. This bill has an amendment which provides as follows: "In any contract executed in violation of the provisions of this section, the Commonwealth or any other munipical corporation, division or subdivision of the Commonwealth, being a party thereto, shall be regarded as the employer and liable to pay compensation to any person entitled to compensation under the laws of the Commonwealth, as the result of employment pursuant to such contract." In other words it seems to me very plain that this act does not concern third class cities alone, but concerns the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and every subdivision thereof.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems to me and some other members of the House that this bill is contrary to all the law and the practice in this State. In other words, it would make the city responsible by reason of the negligence of some official in seeing that compensation insurance was secured by the contractor. It has never been a part of the law of Pennsylvania that the taxpayer should be penalized by reason of the negligence of some official.

Therefore, this bill should be voted down.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in having this bill prepared, there were three words in the original act that I thought should be changed. I brought the request to the Legislative Reference Bureau, and they thought the best thing to do would be to draw up three bills, one affecting the municipal, one affecting the city and one affecting the State. I understand that has been incorporated in the Township Code, and there is also another bill pending to take care of the State.

This makes compensation possible for a certain class, I am not familiar with the case that was lost, I did not get any brief on it, or anything else, but it brings a certain class under compensation that otherwise cannot get it.

There is no reason why if one employe is entitled to compensation, they should not all be entitled to it while doing similar work. Somebody has to be responsible.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am in perfect accord with the aims of the gentleman from Luzerne, if he desires to provide that contractors who work for municipalities must secure compensation insurance. I know that under the borough law we do that continually, and as a borough solicitor, I never pass upon contracts with the borough unless the contractor shows that he has compensation insurance.

I think that is perfectly right, but this bill says that not only the municipality itself, the third class city shall be liable, but it says the Commonwealth or any municipal corporation, division or sub-division of the Commonwealth, being a party thereto shall be regarded as the employer and liable to pay compensation. The title to this act says that it pertains to third class cities, but after you read the bill you will note that it pertains to the Commonwealth and so forth.

Mr. Speaker, I move you that this bill be stricken from the calendar as it is contrary to rule 56 which reads "No bill, except the General Appropriation bill shall be passed containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title as required by the Constitution, Article III. Section 3."

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask what the point is there?

Mr. TURNER. I have no point.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1020, entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of the act, approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred and seven), entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes, and, in cities coextensive with counties, for city and county purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment and collection of the same; providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith; and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hermansen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hermansen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERMANSEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask whether or not the bill which is now before the House repeals the four mills tax?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Yes, Mr. Speaker. This is a companion bill to House Bill No. 1021, and it is my intention to refer it back to the Ways and Means Committee, where the other bill is.

House Bill No. 1021 substitutes the franchise tax on foreign corporations in lieu of the capital stock tax on such corporations.

House Bill No. 1020 amends section 1 of the act of June 17, 1913 (P. L. 507) as amended, imposing the four mills county tax on money at interest, by exempting from the four mills tax resident-owned shares of stock in foreign corporations liable for or relieved from the franchise tax provided in House Bill No. 1021. The two bills must be considered together.

Mr. TURNER. May I ask, it is the intention to recommit this bill to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. HERMANSEN. That is right.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means for the purpose of further study.

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 324, entitled:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Clinton, Mr. Simon.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clinton, Mr. Simon, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SIMON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of this bill please state its purpose and how much money is involved?

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I think this bill involves four hundred and six dollars. I introduced this bill at the request of the Highway Department, which found itself in this position: They built a section of road in our county and they had a commissary system, that is, they had their own employes and they had a commissary system.

After the road was completed they turned the money they had into the Highway Fund; I think it was some twenty-six hundred dollars. After the thing was closed up they found that there was a bill with a wholesale grocery up in Renovo which had not been paid. They tried to pay it, but were advised by the Attorney General that they could not pay it without a legislative act.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, permit himself to be interrogated?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1713, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the eighteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 842), entitled "An act for the protection of owners of electric storage batteries upon which the word 'rental' or any other word, mark, or character is printed, painted, stamped, or attached to identify the same; and providing penalties."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHREINER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise at this time to oppose the adoption of House Bill No. 1713. This bill would repeal the act of 1923, known as the Battery Repairmen's bill. That act protects more than six thousand dealers throughout the State who rent storage batteries to motorists while their own batteries are being recharged. These rented batteries, in many cases, are better than the original battery, and the rentor often forgets to return the rented battery. The act assists the dealers in securing a return of their own batteries. I ask you to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill does repeal the act of 1923, and that is as it should be. The act of 1923, which the gentleman from Dauphin has explained to you, protects one class of business people. It has been abused and used for the collection of bills—nothing more. The courts are tired of it, the district attorneys are tired of it, and the legal profession is also tired of it, and I have been asked by the courts of Beaver County to have this bill introduced for the purpose of removing from our statute books a bill that is nothing more or less than class legislation. The battery people have used this act for the last ten years to collect their bills. They use it as a threat to force people to pay their bills and nothing more.

I ask you to repeal that act, in order that we may have on our statute books laws for the general good and not laws designed solely for a certain class of people.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the promise of another day. We pray Thee to be with each member of this Senate. In the conflicts and the anxieties and the joys and the sorrows of every one of us and in the midst of all of the affairs of life help us to realize that we are individuals, with individual responsibilities and joys and sorrows. Give unto each one of us the grace and the simplicity of sweet reasonableness, and help us all to realize that there is not on the face of this earth any man who is infallible in judgment or in knowledge. Therefore make us, as our Master sought to have all of us, with the disposition and with the faith and with the modesty of children. Bless us all and bless our families. Bless these page boys and all the employes of the Senate. We ask in Thy Name. Amen.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not intend to indulge in any elaborate anaylsis of this bill except to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that it will raise the motor fund to the extent of seventeen million eight hundred and ninety-one thousand dollars, and in most cases appropriates that money to the larger municipalities to be expended by them. It seems to me that the State funds should be expended by State agencies, and it would be a serious mistake to pass this sort of legislation.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, this bill, as I understand, is a bill that helps first, second and third class cities in Pennsylvania, and they will be the benefit of this money; and the Senators representing these various cities think it is high time that the cities that produce the fund should at least get a small share of this money. It is legislation that should have been on the statute books many years ago, and even this late day is not too late to do the right thing by the various cities in this Commonwealth; and I hope the Senate will pass the bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—37

RESOLUTIONS

DISCHARGING COMMITTEE

Mr. JOHN J. KANE offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 11, 1933.

Resolved, That the Committee on Corporations be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 226, entitled "An act to repeal the act approved the 18th day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 546) entitled 'Industrial Police Law,'" which bill was referred to the Committee on Corporations on January 18, 1933 and has been in the hands of said committee for a period of more than ten days.

On the question.

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I regret to have to offer a resolution of this kind at this particular time, but I have used all the influence I could with the Committee to try to get favorable consideration of that particular piece of legislation which is very badly needed, and which the citizens of Western Pennsylvania are very much in favor of. I am going to ask the members of this House to vote to discharge this committee from further consideration of this bill.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kane.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kane, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny whether since that bill has been placed in the sub-committee of which Mr. Kane was advised at the time, whether or not he has conferred with the Chairman or any other member of that sub-committee?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. I have, Mr. Speaker. I have conferred with the members of that committee. I did not confer with the chairman of the committee, but I did confer with other members of the committee.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he conferred with any members of the sub-committee?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. I did, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, may I ask who the members were?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Way, wants to find out what members of the committee Mr. Kane has been speaking to. The merits of the bill are trying to be discussed on the floor.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. The gentleman is being interrogated. It is his privilege to refuse to answer the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Way. Does the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Way, desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kane, further?

Mr. WAY. I do Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kane, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kane, whether or not I gave him the names of the sub-committee, the three members of the subcommittee, comprised of the chairman and two others, and whether he conferred with any members of that sub-committee in the interest of his bill?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would say in answer to the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Way, that following a meeting of the Corporations Committee I was advised that the bill had been submitted to a sub-committee and talking later with the chairman of the committee, I asked him for the names of the members of the committee, and he told me he didn't remember their names at that particular time. I did, however, have the name of one member of the committee, and I talked with him about it and asked him if he would do what he could in that committee to get the bill reported out. Now, with regard to the chairman of the committee, I did not discuss it with the chairman of the committee for reasons that I do not care to state, but which I will state, if pressed.

Mr. WAY. Then, Mr. Speaker, do I understand, and does the House understand, that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kane, did not confer with any members of the sub-committee relative to this bill?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I just informed the House that I did confer with members of the sub-committee.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman state who are the members of this sub-committee?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I believe that Mr. Root, of Philadelphia, is on the sub-committee.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask you to vote this motion down because I, as chairman of the Committee on Corporations, wanted to give Mr. Kane's bill, as well as any other bills that came before our committee, a chance to be reviewed, along with other important bills that should have careful consideration. Mr. Kane, the sponsor of the bill, knew that this bill was placed in a sub-committee for that purpose, and up to the present time, I, as chairman of the committee, had no knowledge that this action was going to be taken. I asked you gentlemen to vote this motion down.

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as I understood the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Way, who is the chairman of that committee, he said that they did not have time to consider this bill. Immediately upon its introduction I got in touch with the chairman of the committee, and from time to time asked him to give me an opportunity to explain to the members of that committee what the intent of the legislation was, and yet he says to this House that they have not had time to consider it. We are on the eve of adjournment. This legislation, and legislation of this kind, is as important to the people of Western Pennsylvania, as any kind of legislation that has been introduced in the House, and the people back there want to know how the members of this House feel on this particular piece of legislation. For that reason I have made this motion, much as I regret to have to ask for the discharge of the committee at this time.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hold in my hand here a copy of the Pittsburgh Press under date of January 27, 1933, which has to do with this bill and quotes Mr. Kane as saying what he would do to get this bill out of committee. This article appeared in a Pittsburgh paper before the chairman of the Corporations Committee had the bill in his possession, and before he knew it was in the Clerk's office. In other words, if I may be permitted to make this statement, after the adjournment of the House, when I got home during the middle of the week, I saw this article in the paper, and when I got back here the next week I found the bill down in the Clerk's office, but, on the 27th day of January, which was the Friday preceding my return to Harrisburg and my receipt of the bill, I saw this article in the paper. If I may be permitted on the question before the House, I would like to read it to the House so that the House may have a clear understanding of what Mr. Kane is thinking about and what I am speaking about.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to ask if it has anything to do with the merits of the bill?

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, it has to do with the introduction of the bill and what Mr. Kane says he will do if the bill does not come out.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WAY. This is clipped from the Pittsburgh Press of Friday, January 27, and says:

"COAL-AND-IRON POLICE REPEAL BEING SHUNNED

Backers of Kane Measure Fear It Will Be Side-Tracked, Dropped"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kane, will state his point of order.

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask if the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Way, is quoting a statement made by the press or a statement that I made?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Way, has stated prior to his reading the article that he is quoting from the "Pittsburgh Press." It is the privilege of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kane, later to deny the statement if he sees fit. The gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Way, will proceed.

Mr. WAY:—

COAL-AND-IRON POLICE REPEAL BEING SHUNNED

Backers of Kane Measure Fear It Will Be Side-Tracked—Dropped

NOW IN COMMITTEE

Backers of the move to permanently abolish industrial police in Pennsylvania today were alarmed at what they regarded as an attempt to "pickle" a repealer introduced in the Legislature by Representative John J. Kane, Democrat, of Pittsburg.

When Mr. Kane's bill was introduced last week, it was referred to the House Corporations Committee by Speaker Grover C. Talbot.

It then was announced that a sub-committee had been appointed to deal with the measure, which Representative Albert P. Way, DuBois, chairman of the Corporations Committee, said would "require a lot of study."

Later, Mr. Way said the bill had not been sent to his committee at all and he did not know where it was. Inquiry disclosed it was still in the chief clerk's possession and simply had not been obtained by the committee chairman.

The Kane bill repeals the Mansfield coal and iron police act empowering the Governor to issue commissions for private police employed by corporations.

Senator William D. Mansfield, who disavowed his bill in 1929 after it had been amended, announced his support of Mr. Kane's repealer. The original Mansfield bill proposed complete abolition of the coal and iron police. Judge M. A. Musmanno, then a legislator, sponsored a similar bill. Both measures were passed. The Musmanno bill in its original form and the Mansfield measure amended.

Governor John S. Fisher vetoed the Musmanno bill and approved Senator Mansfield's measure over the protest of the sponsor.

Although Allegheny County legislators have been the sponsors of coal and iron police legislation for three successive sessions as a result of the John Barcoski slaying in 1929, no experienced legislators from this county are members of the Corporations Committee.

Three new members—Representatives William A. Walker, Avalon; John L. Powers, North Side, and John D. Scorza, Pittsburgh—were assigned to the committee from this county.

Representative Kane said today he would "pry that bill out of committee if it takes all session."

Enlisting the aid of other legislators from Allegheny County, he expects to launch a battle for hearings and favorable committee consideration of the bill next week.

No coal and iron police exist in Pennsylvania now, due to Governor Gifford Pinchot's action in revoking more than 1000 commissions in 1931. More than 400 of these commissions were held by industrial police in Allegheny County.

The Governor has declared he will issue no more commissions in his term at Harrisburg, but Mr. Kane proposes to assure permanent abolition by repeal of the law.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this article, of course, was all news to me. When I returned to Harrisburg the following Monday I secured this bill from the Clerk's office. I also called a meeting of the committee and organized a sub-committee and placed another bill, a non-profit corporation bill, which was a big heavy bill, in the hands of the sub-committee to study. That is evidently where the misunderstanding is. I am sorry to have taken this much time, but I ask you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, to vote the motion down.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the merits of this bill are not open for discussion here on the question of the discharge of this committee, but since no irregularities have been charged against the procedure of this committee, I can see no justifiable reason why this committee should be discharged.

Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Nothnagle, Weidemann, Tahl, Price, Wike, Fleisher, Habbyshaw, Woodside, Shreiner, Rice, John L. Holmes, Wood, George W. Williams, Conner, Davies, McCandless, Mrs. Pennock, Laubach, Baker, Royle, and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mr. Melchiorre and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, the General Appropriation bill, known as House Bill No. 260, is before you for consideration this morning.

This bill is the general expense bill for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and is the General Appropriation bill

This bill is not the construction of an hour nor a day, and much less a week. We have been working on this bill ever since the beginning of this legislative session.

The General Appropriation bill in its history, and this I state more for the information of the new members of the House, is a mechanical problem, eminates in the House in some form or another, is referred to the Senate, where certain amendments are offered to meet the views of that side of the body. As a result of these mechanics, the bill is then sent to a committee of conference, and those conferees sit down for a day or two or three and prepare such recommendations as will satisfy the majority in the governmental administration of its functions.

True it is that this bill provides for a very drastic cut in the general functions of government. In the main I agree that restorations should and must take place in this bill, to satisfy not only governmental department heads and administrators, but likewise the majority of the assembly, including the House members and the Senate. Keeping that in mind I want to make a statement, a very frank one: the three-million dollar cut on education will be restored when it gets to the Senate upon an agreement arrived at last night with the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, Senator Scott, and several other Senators and members of the House and myself. That will be restored to its original figure as recommended by the Governor, which under his recommendations carried with it fifty million dollars. So that it may be known, I reiterate, that three million dollars shall be restored. I promise you that upon my word of honor. I think the members who have sat with me in this Legislature, where we have slashed an appropriation bill, will not question me in that connection. I think that may be exemplified by the fact that in the extraordinary session of 1932, when we passed a bill here with a twenty-seven million dollar cut for ten months, we restored it back to a little more than sixteen million dollars in a similar manner. And so. I ask you not to be apprehensive. I promise you that the three million dollars will be restored to the school districts from where we have taken it and laid it aside. So much for that particular item.

On the question of the State Teachers' Colleges, better known as the State Normal Schools, you members will recall that in the Sterling Finance Report for economies in government, they recommended that two schools be eliminated, however not specifically setting forth what two schools. We older members will recall that in 1931, the Governor of the Commonwealth said the school teachers colleges should be cut in half. The Appropriation Committee or the sub-committee of the Appropriation Committee thought that they could experiment with a reduction, not of six as suggested by the Governor in 1931, not two as suggested by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, but we thought we would go a step farther. And we, in our wisdom thought possibly four should be eliminated. I know of no reaction in my experience that carried with it more telegrams and telephone calls then when the information became public that four state teachers colleges were to be eliminated. I think every alumnus and brother and sister sent telegrams and long distance telephone calls pleading for the restoration of this or that particular school. It became so voluminous that on Friday at my home, all I did was to answer telephone calls from friends of California, friends of West Chester, friends of Clarion and Stroudsburg. Upon my return to Harrisburg on Sunday, I immediately proceeded on the assumption that a gross error had been committed by the Approppriation Committee on state colleges. I learned on Sunday that the gentleman from Philadelphia who has recommended the discontinuance of two schools had placed before the House a resolution that a commission or committee should be appointed from the Educational Board, consisting of five members, who should study state teachers colleges and report their findings in 1935. So feeling in my own mind that if the very gentleman who recommended the two school eliminations as against the subcommittee which had recommended four, may have had a grave doubt in his mind as to whether his recommendations were not just a little out of line, and thinking that if he was amenable to change in his own mind, there was no reason why the appropriation committee could not take the same stand and, therefore, last night in a committee of conference we again interested ourselves in Clarion, Stroudsburg, West Chester and California. We have agreed with the Senators and friends and members of this House that the four state teachers colleges shall be restored to the bill in a committee of conference and upon an amendment submitted by either Senator Parkinson or Senator Owlett or Senator Quigley, whoever may present the amendment. So, I say to you in all honesty and sincerity and as man to man that those four institutions shall again be restored in the General Appropriation bill for the session of 1933-1935.

A third recommendation for the elimination of certain institutions was the elimination of two state owned medical and surgical hospitals, one at Coaldale and one at Shamokin, not criticizing, however, these institutions in any way whatsoever. Any man who is associated with hospitals knows that the hospitals today, whether they are state owned or whether they are state-aided, are rendering a service which is unparalleled in their history. People are applying for aid today at those institutions who never before had any idea that the day would come when they would have to apply to those institutions for free service. After hearing the reaction toward a cut in those two institutions, I was thoroughly convinced that we had again erred, and I again say to you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, that Coaldale and Shamokin will be restored in the General Apjpropriation bill for the session of 1933-1935.

The General Appropriation bill, my friends, is drastically cut, I agree with you, but I say this, as I have said before, I believe, that I doubt whether a man from any district in Pennsylvania who was elected to the General Assembly, either in his platform at the Primary Election of April, 1932, or in the General Election of 1933, did not on all occasion, when permitted, stand out before his public and tell them that he was for economies in government. If that lady or gentleman is just as sincere now as then, today is the opportune time to demonstrate that honesty and that promise to their constituents.

Let us picture the national program at Washington. We will call the President the man of the hour. My hat is off to him for the intent and seriousness with which he has grasped the situation and said that the government must be reduced in its expenditures. Who would have been willing to prophesy that. Who would have been willing to prophesy on March 4th, that the President of the United States would cut into the pensions of the soldiers to the extent of fifty per cent? Not a man or woman would have dared to picture that in his mind nor to have visualized that he would carry that to a happy termination. Not only the majority party but the party of the minority in Washington fell right in line with the President of the nation and stood shoulder to shoulder with him, and said "if it must be cut, let us cut it, and we will stand behind you." So I say to my Democratic friends, and my Republican associates that economy in government is essential.

If we do not make an attempt to economize in government, how much less can we expect the county in which we live, or the city of the first class or second or third class, or the borough or township to reduce its cost of operations, when we ourselves at Harrisburg refuse to be a party to cutting governmental expenditures. The answer is plain: An effort must be made.

I again say that time after time in this legislative body, from the time that I came here in 1913, that I have seen appropriations increased year after year by the establishment of bureaus and by the establishment of departments, and the result has been that the appropriation bill in those number of years, starting at seventy-eight million dollars has gone up to one hundred and fifty-eight million dollars.

Ladies and gentlemen we must be honest with ourselves. To practice economy, we must do it at our own table.

A bill is in the House today, known as the Holmes bill, that reduces the salaries of the General Assembly, not for the current term, but for the term of 1935. It reduces the salaries from three thousand to twenty-five hundred dollars, the mileage remaining the same, and the stamps considered and the office supplies.

We have here a program effecting a reduction if we pass this bill, notwithstanding the criticism of the Governor who said that we were willing to reduce everybody's salary but our own. This is your opportunity to vote and to carry out to a happy termination a reduction in the expenses of the legislative branch as well as in the judiciary and the executive branch.

Ladies and gentleman, I lay this before you for your consideration, keeping in mind, however, the promises and the statements that I have made will be absolutely adhered to, and I assure you that those restorations will be made in the Senate and that will be approved by the committee of conference from the House—as I say, I now lay before you the general appropriation bill.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny state whether there is any probability of replacing the five hundred dollar cut in connection with the transportation of pupils and also the one hundred and fifty thousand dollar cut in connection with the vocational schools in the rural sections?

Mr. STEEDLE. For the information of the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Speaker, permit me to extend this information. The cut that is in there on vocational education is subject to the basic three bills that have been proposed by the gentleman from McKean. If, however, they should happen to fail in the Senate or in the committee of conference that amount will have to be restored.

Mr. RHODES. I note, Mr. Speaker, in the bill that the Committee on Appropriations has anticipated some reductions in the salaries of judges. Is there any probability or possibility that that cut can be put into effect due to the fact that the judges are not obligated to take such a cut.

Mr. STEEDLE. For the information of the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Speaker, permit me to say this: We have tried in every way possible to get in touch with every judge in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the purpose of getting an expression of opinion from him as to whether he would accept such a cut. We were unable to obtain any such information, but we assumed that in spite of the fact that probably not all of the judges, one hundred per cent, would take a cut, that there would be sufficient voluntary cuts to meet the reduction as it is now presented to you by the Judiciary General Committee.

Mr. RHODES. In other words, that item depends on the willingness of the judge to make a contribution.

Mr. STEEDLE. Absolutely. From the information that we have obtained from the Attorney General, we cannot reduce any salary which is statutory, and when the man is elected upon that salary. We can, however, anticipate, in lieu of that, that one-fifth of the entire judiciary in Pennsylvania, I am informed, will be up for re-election in November of 1934, and that being so, then we may impose the cut and obligation on those who are willing to go along.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I also ask the gentleman from Allegheny as to whether or not he is informed as to any reduction on the part of the members of the General Assembly so far as salaries are concerned.

Mr. STEEDLE. I happened to be at the meeting last week. I think it was in Room No. 532, and there wasn't a member in that body or group who didn't feel in accord with that and said that he would vote for the House Bill reducing the salary by five hundred dollars.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny, whether or not that anticipated cut is reflected in this bill?

Mr. STEEDLE. It is not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOSE. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. LOSE. Mr. Speaker, I have but one question to ask the gentleman from Allegheny: would it be possible to make these restorations that he has promised here in the House, so that the House may have the credit for it instead of the Senate?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Lycoming, it has been the general practice that the general appropriation bill in its mechanical construction should be developed by the House, and then in that makeup sent from the House to the Senate, and also referred to a Committee of Conference. I wish to state to the gentleman from Lycoming that by amending the bill and doing the revamping, it would mean the expenditure of two or three hundred dollars, which would be a waste of money. That can be done in the Committee of Conference and I can assure the gentleman without any hesitation, mental or otherwise, that those restorations will be made.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Speaker, tell me why the Committee on Appropriations has cut the State-owned hospitals and increased the appropriations to the State-aided institutions?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I shall be very glad to answer the gentleman from Luzerne. We are all familiar with the fact that we have two types of hospitals in Pennsylvania. To those of you who are not familiar with the fact, let me say that we have two types. We have the State-owned medical and surgical hospitals, and we have the so-termed State-aided institutions. The State-owned medical and surgical hospitals are solely maintained by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. A charge, of course, to those who volunteer to these who can pay is made for the service; that money is turned back to the State treasury. There are certain hospitals that return money and there are certain hospitals that do not.

First of all, the State-owned medical and surgical hospitals, from the information that we have been able to glean from the Auditor General's Office, which is official information, have on their payrolls a considerably larger number of people than they have in the State-aided institutions. We thought that in the program of economy and in the abatement figures as of 1932 all those hospitals, taking the abatement at that particular time—there were some that were not abated—suffered no ill, but in the interests of general economy we felt that the State-owned medical and surgical hospitals should acquaint themselves with the fact that extravagance had been committed, based upon the report of the Auditor General's Office. Upon our recommendation it is only a ten per cent. cut from their appropriations as of 1931-1933. We feel that if they will cut the cloth to suit the child, that there is no reason why they can't get along and will get along.

Secondly, in answer to the gentleman's question regarding the increases to State-aided hospitals, there is not a man who is not interested or who has not had some hospital experience, and I assume that there are a great many members here in this House who in some way or another are associated with State-aided hospitals.

The State-aided hospitals prior to this year or prior to 1931, or may I say before the depression arose, were the recipients of money from philanthropic individuals who gladly gave to these institutions in the way of an endowment or a direct contribution, but that form of philanthropy is apparently over for the present. The man who once gave considerable of his wealth to State-aided hospitals is no longer a man of wealth. His finances have shrunk so seriously that he has cut down his overhead, not ten per cent., but possibly seventy or seventy-five per cent. So, the State-aided hospitals are being no longer the recipients of those contributions or endowments, whatever form they may have taken, and that led us to believe that every hospital in the State of Pennsylvania needed more money instead of less, if the Governor would sign the bill, and I can answer for him, and ought to be increased by at least twenty per cent. to enable them to carry through for the time being.

As I have said before, they are now being called upon to perform services that have not occurred before in the history of the Commonwealth, clinical service as well as hospital service. We, therefore, felt that the State-owned medical and surgical hospitals could take a ten per cent. cut as the wards of these institutions have been decreased, but as far as the State-aided hospitals are concerned the State has no jurisdiction over them and the State-aided hospitals in the State of Pennsylvania have reduced their charges for the employes by at least twenty-five per cent.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House; I appreciate the statement that the gentleman from Allegheny has made in saying that this bill will be amended in the Senate, but what I would like to know of the gentleman from Allegheny is what guarantee this House has that the Senate is going to amend this bill.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, what particular amendment?

Mr. YOURISHIN. In placing back in the bill the two State-owned institutions, namely Coaldale and Shamokin, and the four State teachers' colleges, and that three million dollars will be put back in the school system appropriation.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, the best evidence that I can give, if you please, is what I told the members of this body, and I do not think that any member here in my twenty years of experience can contradict the fact that when I have told them anything would occur that it did not occur.

I assume the gentleman has in mind the agreement that Mr. Sowers made on the floor of the House in reference to the beer bill, but I do not think that has any parallel in this connection. I am not saying that Mr. Sowers has broken the faith. I have not yet seen the report of the committee of conference submitted for my signature or approval, but I do say to you in all honesty and sincerity, that you do not need to have any apprehension whatsoever. I promise you, and I assure you, that those restorations will be made, because there was a conference of Senator Parkinson, Senator Quigley and several other senators and myself, and we all agreed that the restorations would be made. Any further promise I cannot make but I assure you without any question of doubt and many others that are now in there will be taken from it.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not doubt the word of the gentleman from Allegheny and his sincerity in making the statement that the bill will be amended and that the two state-owned institutions, medical and surgical hospitals and four state teachers colleges will be restored in the bill. However, I feel that this House should take action here, and see that they are restored here in the House rather than take our chances on the amendment going through in the Senate.

Furthermore, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, has made the statement that there was a difference between the state-owned and the state-aided institutions.

So far as I have been able to find out the one state-owned institution in the city of Hazelton, the Hazelton State Hospital, has in the past biennium received an appropriation of three hundred and ten thousand dollars. Of that three hundred and ten thousand dollars that state institution returned to the general fund for that same period, one hundred and eighty thousand dollars. In the budget as submitted to this House by His Excellency, the Governor, that appropriation was cut from three hundred and ten thousand dollars to four hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars for the next biennium. The Committee on Appropriations has seen fit to cut that further by cutting down that appropriation to two hundred and sixty-five thousand five hundred dollars, or approximately forty-five thousand dollars for the next biennium.

I say to you, and I say it with all sincerity, that the state-owned institution in the city of Hazelton treats as many free patients, if not more, than any other institution in the Commonwealth. I say to you further, that if a state institution is returning to the state over half what has been appropriated to it, that I do not think it is honest for the Committee on Appropriations to cut further into its appropriation as made by the Governor of this state. We were perfectly satisfied with the cut as submitted in the budget of Governor Pinchot.

We do not believe that the institution can stand any further cut. They have, as they have everywhere else at the present time, a situation where men, women and children, taken into the hospital are unable to pay their way.

If you will go over the records of that institution you will find that up until the present biennium, it cost the state less than five thousand dollars a month to operate and run that institution, and I say to you that instead of this House voting for this bill, they should recommit this bill, and have it amended in this House and then send it over to the Senate.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. I will Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny tell me what it will cost to reprint this bill? It is a very large bill.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Wilson, from the information I have had, it would cost in the neighborhood of one hundred and ten or one hundred twenty thousand dollars.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny misunderstood my question. Does the gentleman from Allegheny know how much it would cost to reprint this bill?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I understand that it would cost about one hundred and twenty dollars.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, to reprint the bill?

Mr. STEEDLE. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I appreciate that the members of the House probably want to vote on this proposition. I am not going to take your time but I want to say this to the House, that I think you are in a much stronger position taking Mr. Steedle's word that these amendments can be made in the Senate, because if we made them in the House, the Senate could take them out of the bill. I think we ought to rely on Mr. Steedle's word. We have his promise that they will be made. If this bill comes to a conference, no doubt the gentleman will be one of the conferees, and he has told us that they are bound to do this thing. We will have another opportunity, however, when the bill comes back to vote on the conference report. While I appreciate the fact that the members of the House would like to vote and have these things changed here, it looks to me like a foolish expense. The gentleman has promised us to make these changes on his word of honor, and as a member of the conference, and I think he will undertake to carry out the promise, and then when it comes back you will have an opportunity to vote on the conference report. I think we ought to take Mr. Steedle's word. Not only do we have his word that these changes will be made, but he is going there as our representative, as our attorney to put these particular things in. He will have an opportunity to talk to the Senate, and undoubtedly as one of the conferees he will see that it is done.

I think it would be very foolish to go to the expense of reprinting this bill.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, may I just answer the gentleman a little further? I presume that the question that the gentleman from Luzerene has raised is with reference to the Hazelton hospital. The appropriation for the Hazelton hospital as recommended by the Governor for 1933 is one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars. The cut recommended for that hospital is ten per cent or seventeen thousand five hundred dollars on a ten per cent basis. Allow me further to say that state-owned medical and surgical hospital received from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania $1,892,450, for the number of state-owned medical and surgical hospitals which are ten or an average of one hundred and eighty-nine thousand dollars per hospital.

There are one hundred and sixty-eight state-aided hospitals in Pennsylvania who in the aggregate amount received but $8,591,000. The state of Pennsylvania appropriated that much money as against almost $2,000,000 for state-aided medical and surgical hospitals.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Allegheny one question?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, in the figure mentioned by the gentleman of $175,000, may I ask whether that was for the biennium or for a year?

Mr. STEEDLE. That is the biennium, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask if that is on the basis of their expected return to the state or is that the total amount that they ask for?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, that is the Governor's recommendation, $175,000.

Mr. YOURISHIN. The Governor's recommendation was two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I have got the wrong line, I will take that back. For Hazelton it is two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars even, and a ten per cent cut brings that to $29,500. That is the cut.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, in reference to the cattle indemnities, is it not true that the original suggestion or the suggestion in the original bill was two million dollars, which has since been reduced to one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars?

Mr. STEEDLE. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny make a statement to the members regarding the restoration of at least a portion of that reduction?

Mr. STEEDLE. Under the so-called indemnity in the Agriculture Department, which is commonly called the clean up act for tubercular cattle, I quote from the Sterling Report: "We are informed that the cattle cost is considerably less today than it was in 1931, for the replacement cost." The Sterling Committee reported that the maximum replacement cost is fifty-five dollars and the minimum cost is thirty dollars. I again quote from the Sterling Report: "that the fee for condemned thoroughbred cattle be set at fifty-five dollars and that the fee for grade cattle be set at thirty dollars." In lieu of that fact we considered the probable loss in cattle that might be killed from the tubercular germ, the so-called bovine tuberculosis. We felt that we could stretch it over a longer period of time. It has been going on now, I just can't recall the number of years, and it is not yet cleaned up. I think the southeastern portion of the State is still under the cleaning program. It is an endless proposition. When one end is finished the other end will have to be started all over again. We felt that owing to the fact of the depression and the financial return of the government falling down between thirty and forty million dollars in the 1931-1933 biennium, if we could carry this over a longer period, instead of receiving two million dollars we would cut it down to one milion two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. However that reaction has not been established, but I am sure in my mind that there are a sufficient number of men interested in cattle growing and in the milk industry in general for the protection of people against tuberculosis all over the State of Pennsylvania that they will say and argue that the two hundred and fifty thousand dollars should be restored. I want to say to the members that are interested in agriculture in Pennsylvania that if the Senate recommends that the two hundred and fifty thousand dollars be restored, your humble servant will agree.

Mr. WADE. Do I understand, then, Mr. Speaker, that this is a tentative agreement to at least restore a quarter of a million of dollars?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, a quarter of a million dollars.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I for one am not suspicious of any statement made by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

As I understand it, for years the appropriation bill has not been finally agreed upon in the House, it could hardly be finally be agreed upon in the House. It is very often the case that this bill goes to a conference committee, and I know of no reason for anybody to be suspicious in the least of any statement made by Mr. Steedle.

I would like to say that no class of citizens in the State of Pennsylvania is more interested in economy than the farmers, the men who own these cattle.

The Department of Agriculture is in hopes, at least, to complete testing cattle for tuberculosis during the next biennium, and from then on the cost of keeping the Pennsylvania cattle clear, so to speak, will be nominal.

The Pennsylvania farmers are now in direct competition with the farmers of the State of New Jersey, who will finish their tests by July 1st. They are also in direct competition with the states of Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin, all of which are now clear.

With the statement of Mr. Steedle that he will endeavor to have at least a quarter of a million dollars of this appropriation restored let me assure the members of the House in the matter. I could not well assure them on behalf of the Department of Agriculture, but I feel from a statement made by the Secretary of that department that that will be satisfacory.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in twenty-five years of legislative experience on one side of the House or the other, I have never known of an appropriation bill to be reported with a larger initial margin or error.

I am perfectly willing to accept Mr. Steedle as minister of the House, as our ambassador, but I would like to broaden his instructions.

I am willing to accept the cut of sixty-one thousand dollars in the payroll of the Governor's office. I do not feel that we hurt the Lieutenant Governor by cutting him thirty-nine hundred dollars under the Governor's budget. I am willing to go along with a one hundred and twenty-two thousand dollar cut in the Department of the Auditor General below the Governor's budget. I am willing to accept one hundred and thirty-one thousand dollars below the Governor's budget for the Treasury's Department. I think that the rural members of this House are willing to accept a cut of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars in animal indemnities. I am willing to go along with that, but when we come to the Department of Banking where they recommended an appropriation of two hundred and sixty-five thousand dollars a decrease of one hundred and forty-five thousand dollars in the department at a time when we have greater use for a Department of Banking than we ever did in the history of Pennsylvania, I say that that is foolish ecenomy, because you take the heart out of your large banking department at a time when you need it.

As far as the Department of Forests and Waters is concerned cutting the pay roll of the people who maintain the integrity of the forests against forest fires and who operate the state's property, I question the economy of a budget that goes two hundred and twelve thousand dollars below the Governor's budget.

For the Department of Health, you scatter that all over the landscape, and I am willing to go along with that.

The Insurance Department, very generous. They cut the Governor's budget seventy thousand dollars.

The Department of Internal Affairs they cut ninety-four thousand dollars.

When you come to the Department of Justice, a department of which the Attorney General and the Governor rightfully say is responsible for collecting some fifteen or twenty-five million dollars a year for the Commonwealth, absolutely in these times the most important part of our state government, bar none, from the point of view of revenue, when you cut the budget as recommended by the Governor from eight hundred and twenty thousand dollars to four hundred and fifty-nine thousand dollars a cut of three hundred and sixty thousand dollars in that department, I say that that is far from statesmanship in times like these.

The Department of Labor and Industry, a cut of four hundred fourteen thousand dollars below the Governor, I might go along with that.

The Department of Military Afairs three hundred fifty-nine thousand dollars below the Governor's budget, I don't see why it couldn't be five or six hundred thousand dollars. If you are looking for money, better cut it out of that Department rather than the Banking Department and the Attorney General's Department.

The Department of Mines, you might as well fold up absolutely. When you reduce the Governor's budget one hundred and seventy-two thousand dollars you create a non-operating department. Call your men in from the field, have the head of the department, with a private secretary below him, sit with his feet on his desk with nothing to do, if you want to go through with that kind of an appropriation for that department.

The Department of Property and Suplies, I think the members of the House would be willing, because they can't go into that department.

When the Appropriation Committee says it is possible to cut the Governor's Budget nine hundred and ninety-one thousand dollars, we have to accept their words for it. It is pretty steep, but we will go along with it. The Department of Public Instruction, I, like other members of this House, say that the place to amend a House Bill is in the House. We start out with an appropriation bill, it goes on first reading, and we don't know anything about it, and then it goes on second reading, and we don't know anything about it, and then it comes up for third reading, and mighty few of the members know anything about it. Then it goes to Conference Committee and the Conference Committee presents its report in the final hectic days of the Legislature, and the House passes a final appropriation bill without knowing anything about it. I want to see that fifty-three million dollars in the bill, and I want to see that item of transportation boosted from two million back to the two million five hundred thousand dollars, because two million five hundred thousand dollars is not enough for transportation in these times in view of the destitution and the bankruptcy of the school districts of the state.

When you come to the Public Service Commission and take eight hundred and twenty thousand dollars out of that, you take the power of initiating action away from the Public Service Commission, you take the power of investigation away from it. The only way the people of this state can get relief from intolerable public utility rates is to give the Public Service Commission enough money to institute action on its own initiative and to make investigations. The budget, as we have it, absolutely precludes the possibility of action or initative on the part of the Public Service Commission.

The Department of Revenue, a decrease of two hundred fifty-eight thousand dollars below the Governor's budget. I can't quarrel about that, because I don't know.

The Department of State, forty-four thousand dollars decrease below the Governor's budget. That must be a remarkably well managed department, when tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands can be found in other departments, and we only pick up forty-four thousand dollars in that department.

The State Police rides on an even keel.

The Department of Welfare, I am not going to quarrel with you about that, but I do say to the members of this House that the appropriation for the Attorney General's Department is radically wrong, that the appropriation for the Banking Department is radically wrong, and that the appropriation for the Public Service Commission is radically wrong, and the appropriation for the Department of Public Instruction is radically wrong. I want to see those things that are radically wrong, those items which this House concedes are radically wrong changed in a committee of the House and not left to the last minute of frantic endeavor.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems to me that we are getting back to the same question that we debated a week ago. At that time we were talking of economy.

From the very beginning of this session the gentleman from Cambria has sought by resolution or otherwise to effect certain reductions with a view to bringing about economy in government. Some of my friends on the other side of the House have been insisting from time to time that economies must be made, but every time we approach economy in the House that is not the one to be cut—something else must be taken up.

The gentleman from Cambria has said that the Banking Department has been cut one hundred and twenty thousand dollars—I think that is the figure—and that is correct, but the reason for that lies in the fact, as I understand it, that the Sterling Committee recommended that the cost of examination of the building and loan associations of the State should be borne by the building and loan associations and thus relieve the Banking Department of that cost.

The gentleman from Cambria has mentioned transportation in the schools. Not long ago I saw a little statement by Mr. Rogers in which he said we are a great people in America for transporting our children to schools to save their legs and then we teach them esthetic dancing in order to develop their legs.

I do not know whether you have given much consideration to this transportation question, but I happen to have been on the Committee on Education since 1925, and I served on the Commission under Governor Fisher in 1927, and I want to say to you that I believe it is being abused. I went to a school that was four miles away from me, and I walked there; I went to college that was three miles away from me, and I walked there, and I think that the state of health that I enjoy today was occasioned by it Today down in the township in which I live I see the bus carrying the children to school, and those children would object tremendously were they not being transported. We are overdoing it with the usual enthusiasm of American people. We are up against this problem, as I see it, and I think we should face it squarely.

The question is up to you whether you are going to make cuts and economize in government. If we cannot turn here without some objections and turn there without some objections, if we cannot sink our own personal likes and our own personal interests for the general good of the whole, then we cannot do it.

May I just give you this picture? Yesterday at a conference in the Governor's office it was agreed that beginning June 1, 1933, that there should be an appropriation of twenty-three million dollars for the purpose of unemployment relief, the money to go to the State Board for such relief, but no limitation as to the time in which it was to be spent. It was anticipated that that, together with twenty-three million dollars from the R. F. C. would give us forty-six million dollars. It was estimated that we are now spending about six million eight hundred thousand dollars or close to seven million dollars a month. Therefore, the forty-six million dollars would not last more than six months, and that it would be necessary for the Legislature to return in November, or at the latest next year, in order that we may continue appropriations for unemployment relief. What then will be the picture? There will have been submitted to the people of the State of Pennsylvania a bond issue of twenty-five million dollars. If we pass that bond issue of twenty-five million dollars we will have available twenty-five million dollars at that time for further appropriation, but we will have no other money for appropriations, because there will be no other money, and if these cuts cannot be made now there can be no further cuts made in November of 1933. Therefore, the most we can anticipate by appropriation from the Federal Government will be twenty-five million dollars. The bond issue of twenty-five million dollars and twenty-five million dollars of Federal money will make a total of fifty million dollars, and if we still continue to spend six or seven million dollars a month at the longest period of time from November or December, 1933, until your money is exhausted. The Legislature will not be here, the Legislature will have to be called back, and then what is the picture that will confront you? There is no other way out of it than to place taxes upon the people of the State of Pennsylvania. Therefore, I say to you that, first, you ought to take it home to yourselves and, second, the people of the State of Pennsylvania ought to understand just what they are facing.

If you are not willing to sacrifice something in your own district, if you are not willing to make every reduction possible that ought to be made, even reductions that hurt, as some of these reductions do hurt, then we are going to be faced with the problem in 1934, possibly in the summer of 1934, of giving to the people of Pennsylvania the proposition that they will have to pay taxes for further unemployment relief, or you will have no money.

Now, we have this picture: we need twenty-three million dollars beginning June 1, 1933. It was anticipated yesterday and agreed upon possibly ecenomies and reductions would amount to thirteen million five hundred thousand dollars, which would leave nine million five hundred thousand dollars of the twenty-three millions yet to be raised. If every other economy that is agreed upon can be received, it would take care of that nine million five hundred thousand dollars, but if it can not be then you must have the amount of money which the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee has presented to you today and which is eleven or twelve million dollars in order to balance your budget to the next biennium if you are to have unemployment relief up until November or December of next year. If we can make economies, if we can add economies then we might have ten or eleven million dollars further for unemployment relief. Unless you are willing to go through with the appropriation bill with the changes which the chairman of the Appropriations Committee says can be made, then I say to you that no later than the summer of 1934 the Legislature will have relief, there will be no money to operate our schols, and the school districts will have no money.

We should raise five million dollars more than we have here to help the districts which will have to close in December at the latest unless we can raise five million dollars some place. If you will make these kind of economies it may be possible to find some place five million dollars to be put in a revolving fund to take care of a thousand districts which will be closed before the next year if you do not give them some extra money beyond the amount in the appropriation bill.

That is the picture that we have to face and which we should face squarely, not in a partisan spirit, but as patriotic citizens and as representatives of the people of Pennsylvania. You will either make the cut now or you will put taxes on the people of the State of Pennsylvania within one year's time. That is the problem you have to face and that is the problem the people of Pennsylvania ought to understand.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. PHILIP STERLING submitted the following reasons for his negative vote on House Bill No. 260.

1. H. B. 260 follows H. B. 22 in establishing statutory bureaus and statutory salaries. In the course of the debate on H. B. 22, I stated clearly my conviction that this policy is unwise; that if persisted in, it will lead us back to the chaotic arrangement of statutory bureaus and salaries from which we sought to escape by the passage of the Administrative Code of 1923, with subsequent amendments.

2. This bill cuts the Department of Justice $360,000 below the recommendation of the Governor's Budget. If this provision is finally adopted, it will be necessary to abandon the work of the Parole Commission, in which the Commonwealth has invested $300,000 a biennium, since 1930. In addition, it will necessitate putting large numbers of prisoners in institutions at very much greater cost to the Commonwealth.

3. The appropriation for the Department of Health is cut over $400,000 below the Governor's Budget. Because of the preventive work in which this department is engaged, it is important that it be maintained on present standards. In times like these, such a reduction is too hazardous, in spite of any call for economy. In twenty years, the dollar spent for public health administration in 1913 has been increased only to $1.57. On a comparative basis, in view of the decreased purchasing power of the dollar, this represents, not an increase, but an actual decrease.

4. The cuts contemplated for salaries and general expenditures in the administrative departments of the government, compared with the cuts made in the Departments of the Auditor General and the State Treasurer, disclose striking discrimination.

5. I am of the opinion that the responsibility of a member of the House cannot, and should not, be delegated. The House should prepare an appropriation bill which will meet with the approval of a constitutional majority in the House before the measure proceeds to the Senate. Since one branch of the Legislature cannot bind the other, it is unwise and inexpedient legislative technique to barter the passage of a bill in the House by making promises that it will be amended in the Senate. On too many occasion in this session of the Legislature, a bill has been passed in the House only on the strength of promises made by the sponsors that amendments would be made in the Senate. The notably instances are the Beer Control Bill, the Unemployment Relief Measure, and H. B. 22.

Since neither the sponsors of the bills nor the House itself have power to control the action of the Senate, the practice becomes obviously dangerous, first, because it subjects the sponsors of the measure to the danger of being unable to keep the promise made. Thus the integrity of the sponsor is placed in great jeopardy. Second, it is dangerous because it destroys the independent thought and action of the lower house. This must be maintained under a bicameral system, if good government is to result.

RESOLUTION DISCHARGING COMMITTEE

The SPEAKER. The Chair returns to the unfinished business of the House, the resolution offered by Mr. Andrews, to discharge the Committee on Corporations from further consideration of House Bill No. 229.

RESOLUTIONS

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON RULES FIXING ORDER OF BUSINESS

Mr. HUTTON offered the following resolution from the Committee on Rules which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 11, 1933.

Resolved, That the order of business of the House for the sessions of Tuesday, April 11, shall be as follows:

1. First reading bills, Calendar.
2. Second reading bills, Calendar.
3. House Bills Nos. 1384, 1385, and 1386 on the third reading postponed Calendar.
4. Appropriation bills on third reading Calendar.
5. Bills on final passage Calendar.
6. House bills on third reading Calendar.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this changing of the rules is very obviously put in for the purpose of making impossible motions to discharge certain committees that have been holding bills ever since we have been here. This morning we started a series of motions, and so far we have made two of them, and have discussed the two bills that have been held for two or three months in committee, and which were introduced by certain members who are interested in improving the labor conditions and things along those lines. In these measures we are backed by the State Federation of Labor and various other groups who are interested in improving the working conditions of the people of the State of Pennsylvania.

We were informed last evening that the only heading under which motions could be introduced was under "Resolution," and we brought them in this morning under that heading. This has only taken up a matter of about an hour and a half of this House so far.

It does seem to me that coming in at this time with a rule that in effect under the heading of "Resolutions," and "Order of Business" is merely an attempt to gag those members who are bringing in these motions. This is a parliamentary body. The minority certainly has some rights. The minority certainly has a right to present its bills and present its arguments in support of them, and if the committee refuses to report them out on the floor of the House, we certainly have the right to move the discharge of that committee and get a record vote on it, so that we can go back home to our constituents and show them where we stand on these issues. We are supposed to be a representative body, and to properly represent our constituents they should know where we stand on these questions. The labor groups throughout this Commonwealth are vitally interested in labor bills and other things of that sort, and they would like to know where their representatives in this Legislature stand on that question. As it is, we have not had a chance this session to get a record vote on these questions.

The women's forty-four hour work bill is in committee and you cannot get it out. There are thousands and thousands of men and women who are in favor of that bill and who want to know where their representatives stand on that bill. If we are not permitted to make a motion and get a record vote, they cannot tell where we stand, and it permits the member to go back home and tell those who are against the bill that he was against it; and those who are for it, that he was for it, and our constituents have no way of telling whether their representative is for it or not. I contend that it is only fair that we should be permitted to make these motions. We have discussed a lot of measures which seem to us certainly to be unimportant. It does seem to me that the members of this House should have one brief day out of a session that has already lasted three months, to discuss measures such as we have mentioned and such as we have proposed and introduced, and to present resolutions asking for the discharge of committees from further consideration.

I, therefore, ask you, members of this House, to vote no on this rule, and this irregular way of doing business, which is in effect a motion to shut off the motions that have been made here today.

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the House that the resolution from the Rules Committee is for the purpose of expediting business before us today with a seventy-five page calendar. The Rules Committee will recommend to set aside tomorrow a specific time for the purpose of making motions for the discharge of committees.

MOTION TO TABLE RESOLUTION

Mr. HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I move you that this resolution be laid upon the table until next Monday night at 9.00 o'clock.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, before we vote on this resolution——

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to state that the motion to lay upon the table is not debatable. The Chair desires to inform the House that while he will not rule the motion out of order, it changes the order of business which is proposed for speeding up today's calendar.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. GALLAGHER. Mr. Speaker, I second the call for a roll call.

Mr. HOOPES. Do I understand the Chair to rule the motion made by the gentleman from Fayette to be out of order?

The SPEAKER. The Chair ruled that the motion was not debatable. We are voting upon the motion at the present time to lay upon the table.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mr. Gallagher and were as follows:

Amend section 3, page 3, line 3, by inserting after the word "bonds" the following: "which said amount of uncollected taxes so recited."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The fifth section was read as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

(SPEAKER TALBOT IN THE CHAIR)

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to thank the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, for presiding over the deliberations of the body.

The Chair lays before the House the next order of business as fixed by the resolution, being House Bills Nos. 1384, 1385 and 1386, on pages 65 and 64 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by the Resolution fixing the order of business.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1384, entitled:

A Supplement to the act, approved the eighteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred ninety-eight), entitled "An act defining consolidation of schools; providing for the establishment and regulation of consolidated schools; and providing for State aid for the transportation of pupils to and from consolidated schools," as amended, temporarily reducing the reimbursements of the Commonwealth to school districts for the transportation of pupils to and from consolidated schools.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to make these bills plain to the members of the House, because they are not my bills; they are your bills, framed by your committee and presented to the House as part of the educational program.

I also want to correct the impression, or the statement, inadvertently made on this floor this morning by the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, Mr. Steedle.

Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I want to get these bills before the House, and I want you to understand what they mean, and I want you to bear with me just a moment, because I don't believe that the members of the House understand what these bills do and why they are introduced.

These bills come from the Educational Committee. They are necessary legislation. They are not my legislation. There is no man or woman in this House who hates to see any cuts made in the Educational Program as much as I do, and these bills are not cuts. They do not cut the items of these bills as they are supposed to do. The cuts were made in the cost of transportation and closed schools and vocational education. They have been made by this House in vacation periods. These bills merely make the cut as you make them, and they will be put into effect by the Department of Education. They don't make any cut or any kind of a disturbance.

On the floor of the House this morning in the confusion and excitement of the debate of the General Appropriation Bill, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, was asked if these bills fell what would happen, and in attempting to keep track of a large bill of that kind it was inadvertently stated to this House that if these bills fell the amount of the Appropriation Bill would be raised to an amount to take care of the particular items. It is exactly the other way around. The amount of money that goes to these particular items of transportation, closed schools and the amount of subsidy for teachers and the amount of money for vocational schools in these bills are based on or are fixed by the General Appropriation Bill, and when they go to the Senate these bills will be amended to direct the Department of Education to distribute the money which we finally agree on in the Educational Bill in a manner to conform to the amount of money we give to these particular items. I want the House to bear with me. I am not standing here arguing with the members of this House. I know that the person who engages in the business of effecting economies, as my friend from Delaware said recently, is unpopular, and if he needs a witness to support that assertion, I do not think that he can bet a better one than the Chairman of the Education Committee.

I have been harrassed by people all during this session, people whom I think were honest and sincere, but who didn't understand what the bills meant.

Let me say again that these are simply methods in order to fix what the cost of the different activities as the money will be distributed.

If these bills fall, and you will understand that they were founded on the budget, they were drawn to distribute the money as set out in the budget. This morning you passed an appropriation bill which gave a much greater cut than these bills, which fixed much lower levels than the amounts set out in these bills. Now, under the final agreement of the Appropriation bill as finaly decided on by the House and the Senate, one of two things will happen; either these things have passed the House and in the Senate they will amend them to meet the amount you have fixed in the Appropriation Bill, because you are going to fix this, not by these bills, but by the Appropriation Bill, these bills will then be amended in the Senate to distribute the amount of money which you give in the General Appropriation Bill If that does not happen, and if these bills do not pass, the Superintendent of Public Instruction will be obliged, under the present law, to distribute as is as long as the money lasts, and you are thereby making a deficit and the budget will be unbalanced.

I am standing here performing a duty committed to me by the House as Chairman of the Education Committee, to get the law into such shape that when you finally decide what you will give to these activities, you will then fix the act which will distribute that money in the amounts which may be decided will be distributed under that bill.

This is not my legislation and it is not my wish to cut the schools, and every man and woman in this House knows that I don't want to cut them, but if you only give them so much money, the law has to be changed to make the distribution.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, the calling of these bills comes as a complete surprise to me. Unfortunately I cannot reveal what happened in the committee and what was the understanding in the Educational Committee in regard to these bills, but I do say that we are faced with a situation where we have to take one of two courses. The one course is by passing these bills and reducing the appropriation to the local school districts. That means that we are going to cripple a great majority of the school districts in Pennsylvania.

Only a week ago we passed House Bill No. 1574 on the plea that such a severe cut in the pay of teachers' salaries was necessary to keep open the schools of Pennsylvania. Now we have this bill before us, the effect of which would be to close a great many of schools in Pennsylvania. In other words, the bill which we passed last week and this bill are at cross purposes, and the one would undo the splendid effect of the other so far as economy is concerned.

The two courses we have before us are these. Under the one we can pass these bills and reduce the appropriation, and thereby send two-thirds or three-fourth of the school districts of Pennsylvania pell-mell up the pike, and the Department of Public Instruction could ask that salaries be cut still further than ten per cent; in fact if they feel like it they could cut them all the way down to five dollars a month. The first and other alternative is this:

If these bills are permitted to die on the calendar or are defeated here on the floor of this House, then the Department of Public Instruction will continue to pay out money on the same basis as during the last biennium. That means that there will be money enough to appropriate for three payments out of the four in the next biennium and on the fourth payment there will be still money enough left to take care of the fourth class districts, the payment of which is due in February, 1935, but there will not be money enough left to take care of the appropriations which will be due to the first, second or third class districts which payment is due, the first one in March of 1935.

If we do not pass these bills, it will mean then that there will be a deficit. The Legislature of 1935 will then be in session almost three months and it makes no difference who the next Governor of the Commonwealth may be or who may make up the Legislature of 1935, they will be conscious of that fact and they will have three months time to take care of that deficiency. We have from time to time, during the long periods I have been a member of this House done exactly that same thing. Many a time we have taken care of a situation like this by making a deficiency appropriation. We at least should hope that by 1935 the conditions may be greatly improved and I feel that it is the only sensible solution of the difficult problem that is now before us and of the school situation in Pennsylvania. I therefore feel that it would be unjust after having passed House Bill No. 1574 on the plea that it was bound to keep open the schools of Pennsylvania, to pass these bills, the effect of which must inevitably be to close them and to work in the opposite direction.

I, therefore, ask the members of this House to vote down these bills and thereby help to keep open the schools of Pennsylvania for the children of this Commonwealth

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to start out by saying that we have no moral right to pass this legislation while this condition prevails. We want to remember that this Legislature, not this particular session, but the Legislature of Pennsylvania, passed a bill which permitted the Department of Education to urge and in many instances to coerce school districts to close their one room schools and go into a consolidation on a promise of a sixty per cent. of transportation charge. As a result of that in our county many districts were forced to close because inspectors came down from Harrisburg and told them that they did not have enough light area or that the roof was bad or that the outbuildings were wrong or something else was wrong, or the water supply was wrong; at any rate for some reason they forced the district to go into consolidation.

Under another law that was passed here, they forced these districts to make transportation contracts for three years on the strength that the State would pay sixty per cent. of the cost. Many districts have contracts for two years yet and there is no other solution for that particular obligation but to increase taxation. I have made a study of the situation over the week-end and I find that if we reduce the teachers' salaries twenty-five per cent. over the minimum and pass these bills that then we will have to pay the difference from local taxation to meet the budget that we have passed and may pass in these bills.

So I believe that we have no moral right to pass this bill or its companion bills and I ask you and very strongly urge you to vote against this program.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, just one more word to the House. I think the House understands that the chairman of the Education Committee has duties to perform. And I also want you to understand that I am not embarrassed by the discussion of the members of the House. This whole thing is a mechanical process. The process suggested by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig, is the one that I suggested in committee, but the plan was thrown out because you members of the House cut the appropriations further, when you cut transportation and other matters further in the appropriation bill. Now, that is going to make a deficit in the budget and you are going to have your budget unbalanced. These are the mechanical bills that should go with the General Appropriations.

I don't want anybody to think, that as I finish this effort, that I am satisfied with the school program. I go further even than the gentleman from Berks and say that even with thirteen million dollars and even with House Bill No. 1374, if passed by the Senate and approved by the Governor, you will still have calamity in the districts with schools closed, which will be a disgrace to Pennsylvania. If that were the only question before this House I could speak with some feeling and possibly at some greater length. This school program has been in our possession with a certain pattern that we had to fit ourselves to and I know that there will be from five hundred to a thousand districts closed even with House Bill No. 1374 passed and these rigid economies which it provides complied with.

If these bills are not passed then the Superintendent of Public Instruction will go on illegally without authority, and without the money to balance the budget and distribute it, and I say he will not reach the payment of the 1st of March in fourth class districts unless more money is put into the bill in the Senate. If he doesn't do that, he will have to adjust his money with the appropriations bill. He will do it either legally or illegally.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from McKean state to the House how much lower the figure is in the budget than that which is in the appropriation bill for the present biennium for this purpose?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in House Bill No. 1384, the present law requires three million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; the budget provided two million five hundred thousand dollars. The General Appropriation bill appropriated two million dollars.

Mr. RHODES. Then, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in response to my interrogation by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, as to what effect it would have in the event of the defeat of these bills, he was in error, when he said, that it would be put again to two and one-half million dollars.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, he had it just the other way around. If the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, wants the other figures, I will give them to him.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, whether or not it is correct if we defeat this bill it will put the appropriation back to three and one-half million dollars?

Mr. WILSON. It will not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RHODES. It will put the distribution back on what basis?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, it will put the distribution back on the basis in which you finally pass the appropriation bill; the appropriation bill will be fixed and then the distribution.

Mr. RHODES. It will be based on three and one-half million dollars, as long as it lasts?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I can only answer the gentleman from Monroe, this way. I have asked the Attorney General and the Governor of Pennsylvania, but they are not ready to say yet what will happen. But one of two things will happen. Either the Superintendent of Public Instruction will start out and distribute this money on the three and a quarter or the three and one-half million basis or on the basis that the law required he shall, and he will continue to distribute that as long as it lasts or until the Governor of the Commonwealth under the fiscal code will say to the Superintendent of Public Instruction "I direct you to distribute this money pro rata according to the money you have there." One of these two things will happen. Maybe the Governor will do that and maybe he won't. I have no authority to speak for the Governor.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from McKean, further.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RHODES. Is it correct under the proposed act that the cut is twelve per cent. in order to bring it down to the two and one-half million dollars.

Mr. WILSON. It is, and it is now above the appropriation bill by five hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. RHODES. What would be the percentage of cut to bring it down to the two million dollars provided for in the appropriation bill?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars is twelve per cent. If it comes down five hundred more it should be eight or nine, something like that.

Mr. RHODES. Will the gentleman from McKean agree that we made a serious error this morning when we acted upon the assumption that the defeat of this bill would put us back to the two and a half million dollars?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I charge myself with that error and not the gentleman from Allegheny, because I intended to call Mr. Steedle's attention to that and have it corrected and I intended to call your attention to it as well as his and have it corrected.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if it is not likewise correct that the passage of these three bills is going to mean placing a greater burden on our local taxpayers in our local districts?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is going to reduce the amount of money that they have and if they are going to run their schools, they will have to get their money from some other sources than the Commonwealth.

Mr. RHODES. You mean they will have to get it from the local taxpayers?

Mr. WILSON. From the local taxpayers, yes sir.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I understand that the bill before the House is House Bill No. 1384.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that that is correct.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think this bill would be very properly named the "Bad Faith" or the "Breach of Contract" bill. I believe that after what has taken place in the past the State today should build on what took place a number of years ago.

In 1920, the Department of Education came into my district and prevailed on our local school authorities to close our schools and transport our pupils on the plea that we would receive so much renumeration each year on account of the closed schools and the transportation of the pupils. A few years after our schools were closed by some process of reasoning in the Department of Education we were deprived of our two hundred dollars a year for each school closed and we were compelled to sacrifice our public school property at public sale.

Now, I am glad that the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, took the floor the second time and stated that he was mistaken, that this bill does not cut the appropriation, because the State Superintendent of Public Instruction has sent each of us a description of this bill in which he says that if this bill is not passed there will have to be an increased appropriation of at least six hundred and fifty thousand dollars to keep up the payments for transportation in the future as in the past.

Since the appropriation bill is to be amended in the Senate, and we heard that very emphatically this morning and voted for it on that inference, it certainly should be amended to include this appropriation necessary to take care of the transportation of pupils. If this bill is passed with a cut of twenty per cent. and the appropriation for transportation is left out again, it can mean but one thing if we are going to continue the conduct of our schools and that is that the discrepancies will have to be made up by the local taxpayers.

In my own community today the school districts are lowering the per capita tax for that express reason, to keep from sending to jail some of the best citizens because they cannot pay their taxes. Another reason back in Cambria County, if the school districts lose their appropriations for transportation they will not be able to fulfill the obligations of their contracts entered into with these bus drivers who have been transporting the children to the public schools, by reason of the fact that they had faith in the Department of Public Instruction and they closed their schools expecting that these agreements would be carried out as they were when they received their appropriation from year to year. I therefore ask the members of the House to vote this bill down.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems that there is a misunderstanding about that. I am possibly responsible on the question of transportation. Allow me to present this picture of the situation which I think will be satisfactory to everybody concerned on this five hundred thousand dollar cut. In going over the transportation question in sub-committee, we had in mind that after the passage of this bill, House Bill No. 1384, providing for certain consolidated school districts with a population of one thousand people, we might probably take away a certain amount of conveyances that are now in use and since some probability arose that this might not happen and since there may be a feeling that this may not be agreed to in the Senate and might probably be destroyed in the preparation, I wish to assure you with the same promise I made in regards to medical and surgical hospitals; I will see to it and fight for the restoration of the five hundred thousand dollars which the Governor's budget had at two and one-half million dollars and which we cut to two million dollars.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair will declare a recess until 9.00 P. M. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and (at 6.10 P. M.) declares a recess until 9.00 P. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 9.00 P. M.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the next order of business, being House Bill No. 1385, Printer's No. 277, from page 64 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by the resolution fixing the order of business,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1385, entitled:

A Supplement to the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred thirty-eight), entitled, "An act defining vocational education; providing for the establishment and regulation of vocational schools; and providing for State aid in the maintenance thereof; and for the payment of tuition by certain school districts, and reimburement thereof by the State," as amended, temporarily restricting the amount of the reimbursements of the Commonwealth to school districts for vocational and continuation schools and departments.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think that the facts in these bills have been fairly debated before the House, and I do not intend to impose on the good humor of the House, more than to give you the facts on this particular bill, in order that you may know how much you are balancing the budget when you pass it.

The requirements under the present law for the items contained in House Bill No. 1385 are within one million one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The bill before you cuts that down to six hundred and fifty thousand dollars. This morning in the general appropriation bill you cut that down to five hundred thousand dollars.

Now, I want to get these facts before the members. I am not arguing with anybody but I am insisting that the budget must be adopted by the House and not by the Chairman of the Education Committee. I am giving you these facts and not arguing on the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the House be at ease for a few moments?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move you that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Education for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, some question has arisen among the members of the Education Committee as to the understanding which we had in committee, that these bills should not come on the calendar. I am perfectly willing to stand on this floor and take whatever lickings are coming to me on bills and I think that no member of the House would find that I would flinch no matter what the results are. But the question has arisen as to whether or not the understanding was in the committee that these bills should not be called up and for that reason I think they should go back to the committee. I have tried to be exceedingly careful that before we passed any of these bills that they would go back and have the approval of the committee, and I am somewhat surprised that I am in this position. So that there can be no question about my word and for that reason I intend to send these bills back to committee.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

The SPEAKER. Is there a second to the call for a roll call? The Chair hears none.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the next order of business, being House Bill No. 1386, Printer's No. 276, from page 63 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by the Resolution fixing the order of business.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1386, entitled:

A Supplement to the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," as amended, temporarily reducing the reimbursement by the Commonwealth to school districts for salaries of full-time members of the teaching and supervisory staffs engaged in special education, for closed schools, and for the transportation of pupils; and relating to the effect of payment of salaries which are less than those established by the salary schedule.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move you that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Education for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, this bill is recommitted for the same reasons given so that there can be no question as to the word of the Chairman of the Committee on Education.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

APPROPRIATION BILLS ON THIRD READING

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the next order of business, Appropriation Bills on third reading, beginning on page 30 of today's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 427, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Sleighton Farm School for Girls, situate in Delaware County, Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, at the request of the chairman of the Committee on Education, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

APPROPRIATION BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1061, entitled:

An Act making a deficiency appropriation out of the Motor License Fund for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the act approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 301), entitled, "An act providing for the acquisition, construction, improvement, operation, and maintenace of bridges over rivers and navigable waters within the Commonwealth; authorizing the issuance of bridge revenue bonds, free from taxation and payable solely from the bridge earnings, to pay the cost of such bridges and improvements thereof; providing for the collection of bridge tolls for the payment of such bonds, and for the cost, of maintenance, operation, and repair of the bridges; constituting such bonds legal investments in certain instances; prescribing conditions upon which such bridges shall become free bridges; conferring powers and imposing duties on the State Bridge Commission; providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act; and providing for condemnation"; specifying the purposes for which such appropriation shall be expended and providing for the return of said appropriation to the Motor License Fund.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken, and were as follows, viz:

QUESTION OF INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, is it possible for me now to call up on the postponed calendar House Bill No. 427, which I just placed on the postponed calendar under a misapprehension, as I think the gentleman from Allegheny said last night that it was House Bill No. 6 that was being called up.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is inclined to think that inasmuch as the gentleman has called it up under a misapprehension, we will grant him a vote of confidence and the bill is called up if he so desires.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Turner,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 427, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Sleighton Farm School For Girls situate in Delaware County Pennsylvania

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 1, by striking out the words "forty-three" and insert in lieu thereof: "ninety-three."

Amend section 1, page 1, line 6, by striking out the figures "($243,000)" and insert in lieu thereof: "$293,000."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise to oppose the passage of this appropriation bill which appropriates over half a million dollars to Temple University, and at this time when money is so hard to get to keep open our public schools, I think it is not right.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, desire to be recorded as voting "aye" or "no."

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. "No," Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will be so recorded. The roll has been called.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I want to inform the Chair that the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, was trying to get recognition before the roll call. He was on his feet attempting to get the attention of the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to ask the gentleman from Berks, if Mr. Brown does not have the power of voice to address the Chair.

Mr. HOOPES. Apparently he does not. I heard him say, "Mr. Speaker," before the roll was called.

The SPEAKER. The Chair now desires to inform the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, that the Chair has recognized the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, in every instance despite the fact that he has never addressed the Chair. The Chair now desires to inform the membership that when a member is desirous of addressing the Chair, that he shall address the Chair as "Mr. Speaker" and get the attention of the Chair.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 1, line 4, by striking out the words "forty-three" and insert in lieu thereof "eighty-eight."

Amend section 1, page 1, lines 5 and 6 by striking out the figures "($243,000)" and insert in lieu thereof "($288,000)."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and unanimous consent is not granted.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill was ordered to be transcribed for third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the bill on second reading be reconsidered.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I have tried to be very courteous and I have always said "Mr. Speaker," when I arose, and I consequently am badly hurt by the Speaker's stating that I did not address the Chair when I arose, and I feel that I am entitled to protest against the charge made against me at that time. I want to be courteous, and have tried to be courteous. I have never tried to stop or to hold up the proceedings, and I thought I had a right to call the attention of the Chair to the fact that Mr. Brown was addressing the Chair and was entitled to obtain the recognition of the Chair when I saw and heard him on three or four occasions say, "Mr. Speaker," three or four times before the roll call started.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, will be entered on the Journal.

The Chair has attempted to be courteous in every instance to all the members of this House, but the Chair has been addressed by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, merely by the raising of the hand. The Chair regrets exceedingly that the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, should question the veracity of the Chair, and the Chair stands upon his original statement.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 705, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The roll was called by the Clerk.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill appropriates over one and one-third million dollars to the University of Pennsylvania. These institutions not being under direct control of the State, according to article 58 of the House Rules, I oppose the granting of this appropriation. That rule provides: "No bill shall be passed appropriating money to any charitable or educational institution not under the absolute control of the Commonwealth, other than normal schools established by law for the professional training of teachers for the public schools of the State, except by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected, as required by the Constitution, article 3, section 17.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, that every appropriation bill up to now has been passed by more than the two-thirds majority.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Yes sir, they have.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to ask the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, what it is that he desires.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. A roll call, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to ask the gentleman how does he desire the roll call?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. By the ayes and nays being taken, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be called and the ayes and nays will be recorded.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I rise on a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask whether this roll call would be a legal roll call.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion and so rules that the roll was called in full. The Chair does not know what ayes and nays may appear upon the roll call, but rules that the roll was called from "A" to "Z."

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I contend that a roll call where the members cannot recognize their names when called is not a legal roll call, in all due respect to the Chair.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman ask that the roll be called again?

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be called again on House Bill No. 705.

A point of order has been raised by the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams.

The Chair has no authority to deviate. From now on the roll calls on appropriation bills will be called in a slow manner by the clerk. The Chair regrets this but has no alternative even though it has been established by past precedent that the roll has been called on appropriation bills in this manner. The point of order having been raised every member's name will be called on appropriation bills from now and the Chair so rules. The members must answer to their names on every bill before the House, or else they will not be recorded.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2070 (Senate Bill No. 670), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of act number three hundred twenty-nine-A, approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Appropriation Acts of One Thousand Nine Hundred Twenty-nine, page one hundred sixty-one), entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies for the purchase or condemnation of additional lands for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," by extending the scope of the appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies for the purchase or condemnation of additional lands for the State Military Reservation, and ratifying certain expenditures heretofore made by said department.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to speak for the adoption of this bill. In my line of work I have come across so many boys and girls and men and women who have risen to high places in the world and places of great usefulness, which would not have been possible were it not for the appropriations which the State makes to Universities and State Colleges. We have seen it over and over, time and again where boys and girls who have come from the farm and were without any capital and were helped to an education by the appropriations made to the institutions. I hope that you will vote unanimously for this bill. I believe that the State has the money to make these appropriations as well as to take care of other matters.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO SIT DURING SESSION OF THE HOUSE

Mr. WITKIN asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Ways and Means to meet during the session of the House, in the House Caucus Room to consider certain House Bills.

(SPEAKER GROVER C. TALBOT IN THE CHAIR)

STATEMENT BY MR. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would ask unanimous consent at this time to make a statement.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, asks unanimous consent to make a statement at this time. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and the gentleman will proceed.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when I raised the question of parliamentary inquiry on the roll call of the House on House Bill No. 705, I was prompted to do so by the fact that members throughout the House on that roll call were hollering "no, no." The clerks were unable from my observation to keep a correct tally of that vote and for that reason I raised the question on which you ruled, consistently on your part, that in future roll calls there should be a deliberate and careful calling of the names so that each and every member could hear his name called and answer yes or no. I had no thought of checking the work of this evening, realizing the custom that has prevailed in the many years that it has been my privilege to serve in this House, that on appropriation bills a hasty calling of the roll was recognized. All I request, Mr. Speaker, from you at this time is to rule that when a member desires to vote "no" that he shall be granted the privilege of having his name so recorded. Otherwise, Mr. Speaker, I have no objection to the hasty calling of the roll on appropriation bills.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, are well taken and will be spread upon the Journal.

The Chair now desires to make a statement for the benefit of the new members.

It has been customary from time immemorial that in the calling of the roll on appropriation bills, to dispatch the business of the body, it is permissible to call a roll in a hurried sort of manner. I do not believe that any Speaker ever desired that any member should not be recorded as voting "no" if he so desired.

The Chair further desires to state that there are over two hundred and fifty third reading bills tonight upon the calendar consisting mostly of appropriation bills.

I again say that the point of order raised by the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, was well taken, and if a member of this body insists that the roll be called in its entirety, the Chair itself has no other recourse, but it is the belief of the Chair that if the business is to be dispatched, it is necessary to call the roll in a hasty, hurried manner, and the Chair assures any member who desires to be recorded as voting "no," that his vote will be so recorded.

The Chair again calls to the rostrum the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton.

(MR. HUTTON IN THE CHAIR)
